

A Kingdom of Foot Washers
John 13:1-17

The setting: the _____ room.

The timing: the _____ night of Jesus' earthly ministry.

1. The act of washing feet was a _____ of the ministry of Jesus
 - Left the _____ of honor
 - Laid _____ his garments
 - _____ himself in a towel
 - _____ their feet
 - When finished he _____ to his place of honor
2. In this act Jesus shatters the human perspective of _____.
 - Peter's refusal shows that Peter still had in his mind the things of men, not of _____
 - It reminds us that we can only truly meet God not on the _____ rung of the ladder, but on the _____.
3. This act reminds us that Christian servanthood will not be _____
 - Jesus washed the feet of _____ the disciples. That included _____, _____ and _____
 - Many times we are called to wash the feet of those whom we are not necessarily drawn to.
4. Jesus reminds us that we show our gratitude to him by _____ the others in our life.
 - The people God places in our lives are the _____ agents authorized to receive what we owe our Lord Jesus.
 - As Christians, we cannot claim "we do not do _____"

We are most Christ-like when we, in gentleness and humility, become a servant.

Jesus is the King whose scepter is a _____ and whose sword is a _____